Una Healy, Every Melody

Girl:
if i write a song, a love song for you,
would it be complete
without you here with me
for you're the reason why im feeling inspired tonight
ooohh,,
chorus:
every melody and every word has been used in someone else's song
makes me wondering
if every feeling that i feel
has been felt in the way that i feel for you....
boy:
know if i feel ever feel the same,
thats why i wanted you to explain
just words and melody
i wish you were soo easy, my mind is blank without you here with me
girl:
but when i see ur face..
both: then it all falls into place..oooh
chorus:
ever melody and every word has been used in someone else's song,
chorus:
ever melody and every word has been used in someone else's song,
girl:
that i feel for you
that i feel for you
boy:
(that i feel for you)
