

Unbelievable Truth, Shed Your Skin

"Tomorrow you could be reborn, in an explosion of sensation,
Is that what you want?
Sight and taste and sound, burning up your new born baby soul...

Shed your skin,
maybe it would do you a service,
underneath
you know that it would be nothing to me,

tomorrow you could be reborn,
seize the oppertunity,
maybe useless flesh,
always dragged you down, mirrors always breaking your soul shed your skin [shed your skin]

maybe it would do you a service,
Underneath [underneath]

Nothing masks our needs to be happy, no one crowds you out,

maybe it would do you a service,
Underneath [underneath]

nothing beats the one you were given,
no one crowds you out..."
