

Under The Shadow, Breathe Again

Lyrics and Music by J.S. Marler 2006

I am lost inside so lonely...
The Darkness fades the light..
Empty beyond words, empty beyond life, emptiness in my Soul.
So I will lay here in this wondering that I have always known
Just lay here n a wondering
Not Knowing where to go..
To go.. Where Do I Go?

Touch Me, Hold Me
I want you to show me
Need to, breathe again
Break me, make me
I want you to shake me
Need to, breathe again

So take this empty hollow
Complete this empty man
Like a lamb I was lead and I followed
I believed every word that you said
So I lay here with this memory stuck inside my head
Just lay here in a wondering, remembering what you said
You said...You Bled
