

Under The Shadow, Not Your Fate

Push it, break or
Lay and wait
Take the bait, as you give in to hate
Watch it, wait
It's not your fate
You can be saved
This could be too late....

I sit and take the time to watch you slowly fade away
I never thought you had listened to anything I'd say
To you, I thought I tried, but I can't push you all the way
I loved you more, I want you to know
God has a better way
