

Undercover (US), The Overlook (Hosanna)

I overlook the overlook
To see what I have overlooked
I criticize myself, you see
Through critics eyes (so I can see)
Overwhelming overkill
I overdo what I should do
I criticize myself, you see
The truth has always set me free

Hosanna

Misery's a mystery
I miss her when she looks at me
Suffering so much, so far
So far as I can tell
Misery's our history
Sweat and sorrow, misery
Sweat and sorrow set me free
The truth has always set me free
