

Underoath, Sunburnt

BURN OUT BRIGHT
HOLD THE TORCH WHILE YOU CAN
DONT FADE AWAY
BURN OUT BRIGHT
DON'T FADE

I saw you pointing the finger it can't be getting clearer Fade out
well if I have to spend it for you I guess I'll be your little marytr Fade out, fade

we've all been down this road a time or two and I swear I thought I was never coming home

Patience I know it's hard enough for you
we can't stand together
Patience I know it's hard enough for you
we can't stand together

I come up empty handed the ground is falling right where I'm shrinking Fade out
I'm just away in the dark they all talk about the day I fell apart
Fade out, fade

we've all been down this road a time or two
and I swear I thought I was never coming home

Patience I know it's hard enough for you
we can't stand together
Patience I know it's hard enough for you
we can't stand together

I stand before the crowd broken
I was once of this I will never let them in, no won't let them intensify and I never took my time while I was there I never took the time

Patience I know it's hard enough for you
we can't stand together
Patience I know it's hard enough for you
we can't stand together

I never thought I'd see the end I never thought I'd see you
