

Undun, Caged

Your iron bars, can't hold me in, can't keep me here.
Your not so strong, without my strength, without my fear.
You can't hold on, once I break free, there'll be no tears.

Chorus

Can't you see the desire that's driving me
I can't be everything that you want, me to be
Now your crossing the line
Now your crossing the line.

Your strongest holds, the winkest link, what will you be
When I am gone, you'll realize, once I am free
What we have done, what we have dreamed, you'll set me free

Chorus

One day you'll realize the truth and take back all the things you said to me and all your lies.

Chorus

Now I am gone, where are you now, so now you see
Your tightest grip, was not enough, now I am free
Now I am free, and you can't be, right here with me
