

Unheilig, Skin

I've wished it a thousand times
I've been all that you want
I've seen things through your eyes
Distinguished right from wrong

You caress me
Tell me that you love me like a storm
Words are tender
But they'll never substitute a heart gone wrong

Let me crawl inside your skin
I promise you won't feel a thing
Let me crawl inside your skin
I'll love you from within
I'll be your courage, flesh and blood

You've taken my body and soul
I give you what you need
If one of us has to go
I hope it can be me

A pointed promise
Fills my head with shades of winter days
The seeds of doubt
Will find me out
And tip their hat to something strange

Let me crawl inside your skin...

Skin
I'll Be your courage, flesh and blood

Let me crawl inside your skin...

Let me crawl inside your skin
I promise you won't feel a thing
Let me crawl inside your skin
I'll love you from within

I'll Be your courage, flesh and blood
