

Unhinged, Float

leave them here, they're dead anyway, empty shells rotting since yesterday, floating in this pool of dismay there's never a peaceful moment, it's starting to get confused, these questions are helping nothing, yer answers are all refused, i'd like ya to be my hero, i'd like to be your friend, i can't wait in here forever, i'll just wait until the end there's one way out: tearing through the crack, great escape, never coming back, trust in me, but always watch yer back
