

Union 13, Never Connected

People they are everywhere why is it I can't connect with people they never understand me sometimes I feel so different or crazy 'cause I just can't seem to fit in I want to escape this life of taxes rules, false freedoms "I'll lay down and die not saying good-bye I'll lay down and die not saying good-bye it all will go on without,me (I never connected)" why should I go on I feel so insignificant in this point in time I don't belong I can't make nothing of myself I can't catch a break anywhere I seek advancement i don't know what to do I'm hopeless I've made my judgement "I'll 'lay down and die not saying goodbye I'll lay down and die not-saying goodbye it all will-go on without me I never connected as a human being"
