

United Nations, Revolutions In Graphic Design

I can hear them in the distance,
Running through the trees waving both guns blind.
You raise the flag for the revolution, "the common man,"
With wit for protection,
Running through the gate to the Palace Walls.
You raise the sign, it's a revolution in graphic design.
We'll trade positions,
Parading through the streets until the roads turn red.
"Viva la passione de la children pour la Revolucion!!!"
Surprise!!!
We're making revolutions in graphic design.
We're making revolutions in graphic design.
Look at the lines! Look at the colors we use!
White beside the red behind the double bold type.
1,2,3-1,2,3-1,2,3-1,2,3-Hold it up high!!!
Gentlemen, we've made revolutions in graphic design.
Now design solutions for Western Decline!!!
We've manufactured dissent.
No one stops the press, you just keep it in time:
1,2,3-1,2,3-1,2,3-1,2,3-1,2,3...4
