ALTEH BUCK

I'm an alteh buck                    I'm an old buck
Foon old Kentuck                    From old Kentuck
Uhn ich triypst tsu town            And I drive to town Lookin' like a schmuck            (schmuck is vulgar for stupid jerk literally, &quot;penis&quot;)

Oy, ich triypst arum                Oh, I traipse around Ahf a fehrdteleh                    On a little horse Ich hob der ganseh veldt            I regard the whole world
In d'rehrdtelleh                    (as belonging) in hell (if not in &quot;hell&quot;; at least dead &amp; buried - &quot;in the earth&quot;)

Yippee ay oh kiyay

Oy, Yippee ay oh kiyay            (The word for horse, &quot;fehrdt&quot; and the word for hell, &quot;d'rehrdt&quot; (the earth), are both in the grammatical form, &quot;affectionate-diminutive&quot;)

tune: I'm an Old Cowhand

From Ray Sinick, riding instructor at the Fallsview Lodge and Evergreen Manor (bygone), Ellenville, NY
