

Unknown Girls, Bad Girl

one girl, one boy should be do not play with fire the more when it is before evil girl little angel mouth and innocent smile for skin devil nothing is already this what it seems because you know surely pretences mislead you often how you want, you will convince alone though it does not smoke and it does not drink, it is bad girl refrain;
over precipice after tench, death cheated she smashed your heart and many different also when something reaches it bores her quickly because it is bad girl
I will not to wrap around in cotton alone you know yet to lose friend easily when you want very I be enamoured, I am alone still she round finger wrapped around him
though it does not smoke and it does not drink, it is bad girl
refrain :
over precipice after tench, death cheated
change evil girl uncover from face hair smile
stop wounding us because the time of change came from worse on better us about so
