

unloco, Nothing

I've got nothing left
For you to take away
I know you blame me
For every time you walked away

So what
You hate me and everything
I seem to do
So look back
Don't turn away
It was my face that you were lying to

And in my life you could find
Everything just seperates
And in my life you could find
Everything you want to take away
I got nothing
I got nothing
I got nothing

So what
It's not the same
Every word out of your mouth is shit
So look back
Don't turn away
I'm sick, I'm through
And I'm fed up with this

And in my life you could find
Everything just seperates
And in my life you could find
Everything you want to take away
I got nothing
I got nothing
I got nothing

[whispers] Please, take it all from me
[whispers] Please, take it all from me

It's all, it's all
As everything just seperates
I know, I know
You give but you take it all away

So what
You hate me and everything
I seem to do
I know you
You blame me for everytime
I walk out on you
I've got nothing

I got nothing
I got nothing
I got nothing
