

UnSuNg ZeRoS, Smile

regrets are my bedfellows I'm feeling so alone I've messed up my life palette now it's colored up with woes just two simple words
have changed me to no end
have changed me to no end
just to simple words to quote you only friends

I miss your smile when I'm sleeping all alone I'm in our house and your not ever home changed residence stopped paying out the rent and girl I miss your smile

When I drive by your house it makes me want to cry each time I see your face it makes me want to die so why do I sit back and look at picture books of you I guess I'm just messed up and that's all I can do
