

Until June, All I Have

I know that it feels like summer but its all I have.
The dark fades
and my heart starts beating when the sun comes out
and I wanna say
that I cant explain
and so I try
and so I try
and so I try
and so I try
oh oh ooah

I know when I'm frail or broken your all I have.
You move me in ways
that I've needed like no one can
and I wanna say
that I can't explain
and so I try
and so I try
and so I try
and so I try
oh oh ooah

And I wanna know why
and so I try
and so I try

them.
and so I try
and so I try
oh oh ooah
