

Until The End, Free Of Filth

Convictions, stronger than ever.
I will never fall apart.
As i live within my convictions,
I'll leave the weak behind.
My sight is always focused,
To this world I owe nothing.
From this breath to my last.
'cause my mind is clear.
free of filth I can think for myself.
I'd rather die in pain, than live with a crutch.
To live and die, Free of filth.
