Unwritten Law, Cailin

Well it seemed like yesterday
When the world was looking dark
It felt so cold and grey
And why the hell am I even here
What's the purpose, all I feel is guilt and hate and fear
'Til that day you came along
My heart was empty
Like the soul was missing from a song
And I thought I'd loved a few
No one ever made me feel
The way that you do

The way that you do Hey little girl

Loók what you do Oh, I love you

Hey little girl, I love you

Well I know I'm not always right

And girl it breaks my heart
When I have to see you cry
So many things I wanna say
Now I know that you're the reason

That I'm here today
Whenever you're here

Just stay near

We'll be alright, yeah alright

Hey little girl
Look what you do
Oh, I love you
Hey little girl

Look what you do, and you do When all my love starts running thin

I got you my own Cailin Hey little girl, I love you I'll be alright

But I need you close Please stay tonight As long as you're here Just stay near

We'll be alright, yeah alright
