

Upstanding Youth, Everything Is Fine

Role reversal shut another door.
Pain liberated pacing on the floor.
Just another picture a letter than I rend.
I'm not a loser in a race that never ends.
Forget about me a lesson that you learn.
Forget about you, a page that I turn.
But things sustained just walk away and that's okay.
So I will wage my bet.

[Chorus:]

And Everything is fine.
My conversational lie.
This joke has had it's time.
And everything is fine.
