Urban Dub, Versus

I'm so tired of being left behind
Eating dust, pushed and shoved
Beaten up and blinded
I'm praying for the day when it ends.
So goodbye to the sun for now till I come back again when I do, you're the fool
I'll be pushing you

Standing on the back line Now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)

I'm so tired of being left alone Looked down, written off Got to learn to fight it I'll be laughing last when this all ends. So goodbye to the sun for now till I come back again when I do, you're the fool I'll be pushing you

Standing on the back line Now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it) Was crawling for a long time But now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)

I'm ready to take everything right back It's a brand new day The fire in my heart, it burns

Standing on the back line
But now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)
Was crawling for a long time
But now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)
Couldn't believe it
Couldn't believe...
Couldn't believe it
