

Uriah Heep, Mistress Of All Time (Enlightened Woman)

She dances on the seven seas
Dances on the ocean
Sunlight on her golden hair
Shapes of pure emotion
Her voice is heard like crystal words across the sky
She moves just like an angel
She's the mistress of all time
Her sun pours down like liquid gold
To chase away the sorrows
Her clothes are like a million stars
Made of tears and rainbows
And all the while her senses smile into my life
She moves just like an angel
She's the mistress of all time
Just like the restless to a mission bell
I must run to her meet her everywhere
As her music fills the universe
She leaves the dancing visions
Of her image on the water
And precious stones upon the shore
From every distant corner
Like diamonds in the light they shine beyond the stars
She moves just like an angel
She's the mistress of all time
Just like the restless to a mission bell
I must run to her meet her everywhere
As her music fills the universe
She dances on the seven seas
Dances on the ocean
Sunlight on her golden hair
Shapes of pure emotion
Her voice is heard like crystal words across the sky
She moves just like an angel
She's the mistress of all time
She move me like an angel
A voice of pure emotion
Her tears are like a rainbow
