

Uriah Heep, Sweet Sugar (Over Importance Of Money)

I've no time for boring things
There's no religion that will make my heart sing, no
They call my up say hey come on down
We've got credit salvation all over town
And I can see it everywhere I go
And I can hear it on my radio
They keep telling me it's alright
But there's one thing I don't need tonight
Is their sweet sugar, poison wine
I don't need these things to make me feel fine
Sweet sugar, poison wine
Just need your love girl every time
We don't need these pointless things
We just need to mend our broken wings
Take a look and look what's going down
We gotta stop before we hit the ground
Yeah we can have it don't you know
Take part in their TV show
They'll keep telling us it's alright
But there's one thing I don't need tonight
Is their sweet sugar, poison wine
I don't need these things to make me feel fine
Sweet sugar, poison wine
Just need your love girl every time
You can't fool me it's a waste of time
You're selling tears down the credit card line yeah
But giving up is not their frame of mine
They'll find a way to bring us in time Yeah I can meet you everywhere I go
And I can hear you on my radio
You keep on telling me it's alright
But there's one thing I don't need tonight
It's your sweet sugar, poison wine
I don't need these things to make me feel fine
Sweet sugar, poison wine
I just need your love every time
Sweet sugar, poison wine
I don't need these things to make me feel fine
Sweet sugar, poison wine
Just gimme your love girl, gimme your love, gimme your love
Sweet sugar, poison wine
I need your love girl yeah all the time
Sweet sugar, poison wine
I just need you girl every time
