

Useless ID, Not Too Late

We'll just keep on laughing at our broken dream in our empty homes its too late for some, its too late for me its too late goodbye
of course you waste you time here but it is your choice I offer you to stay, its not too late for you its not too late for them, its not too late goodbye!
Now you know everyone is alone and the longer you stay, the more, the more you wanna go and I'll just keep on laughing at your broken dream, in your empty home its not too late for you, was not too late for me its not too late goodbye!
