

Useless ID, Nothing Logical In This Lifetime

Scared watching from the side
Logic doesn't even come to mind
I saw you leave with him for the night
On a white horse to your heart
And all you thought was "What will my boyfriend say";
Maybe this time it is alright

I'll stay home for you I hope you come by
To realize he wasn't right
For you, special someone
Options are closed this period of time
My feelings are on sale again
Letting go is so hard

In time I think to myself
Was she really worth it all this while
Another good friend that needs a hand
All the pain is what attracts
You to keep on staying with this guy
A struggle between two, ain't that nice

I'll stay home for you I hope you come by
To realize he wasn't right
For you, special someone
Options are closed this period of time
My feelings are on sale again
Letting go is so hard

Letting go is so hard
Letting go is so hard
