

Useless ID, One Crazy Day

And once again
I thought that everything
Is working out just fine
Although I saw what's going around
Somehow I didn't mind
And one day
It all just broke down
And then I knew that
Everything has been done
One crazy day
And you were gone
There's no fuckin' way
I could change your mind
Things that you said
Hurt inside
Well, I guess I'll never forget that night
And even though I tried
To disconnect and fly
Somehow you jump inside
It's messing up my mind
But I know
That that's the way it goes
And there's no turning back
Just to sit down and crack
One crazy day
And you were gone
There's no fuckin' way
I could change your mind
Things that you said
Hurt inside
And I guess I'll never forget that night
