Utumno, Emotions Run Cold

Bring me to a paradise Where I can drown in my deceit Shattered.... I pass beyond My lost life, I now greet

Emotions run cold, fear begins to grow Desponent feelings are mindless and gone Gather here around me and lay me to rest Forever lost I grasp... Absolute darkness engraved in my mind And my conscience dissolves for saints and sinners

I stand here in silence, emptiness surrounds me My pain shreds my illusions, alone I stand as master

And above I see, the wickedness of man I sink deeper in the lies whitc cuts my wounds Tempting my fear, as I pray for rain It's getting hard to breath. I'm chocking in my pain

I'm tired of this life And all the lies that is creates But god have mercy, don't take me now I don't have faith, but my soul I'll give

Emotions run cold, fear begins to grow Despondent feelings are mindless and gone Gather here around me and lay me to rest Forever lost I grasp... Absolute darkness engraved in my mind And my conscience dissolves for saints and sinners

Take me away...
