

V-Corps, When We Are Gods

You can smile at last Touch The rainbow, Find your place to live
Why should you be so sad?
Chase the wind, Like old days Dont explain it to anyone Hold the reason that makes you sing
We all have moments when we are gods
When we just live with no bad thing
You can smile at last
hug your girlfiend think how much she means you won't jus hang around cause on your back there are new wings Look who's next to you give him a few true words not to be said by money because trust not always hurts so make him trust you
