Vacant Stare, Inertia

If I was falling for another
If I was falling for you now
And if I descend without desire
I'd say the words that break my fall

And if I was falling somehow
And not caught before the ground

Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll get it right
Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll find

If I was lying for another
If I was lying next to you
And if I lost all faith in emotion
I'd stay here till the sea arrives

And if I was lying listless
With this thought before I drown

Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll get it right
Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll fly
Cause your fighting it cleanly
Doesn't mean that you'll win the fight
Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll win

And if I was lying listless
With this thought before I drown

Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll get it right
Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll fly
Cause your fighting it cleanly
Doesn't mean that you'll win the fight
Cause you love it intently
Doesn't mean that you'll fight

If I was falling for another
If I was falling for you now
And if I was lying for another
If I was falling for you now
