

Vader, Death In Silence

So many faces
In crimson light
Piercing sight
Take'em off me !!!

All fiends are coming
And gather 'round me
Frozen cry in boiling flesh
Recollections in my head

My heart beating
Still louder:
Oh - madness take my soul !!!

The walls are coming closer
Strangulating fear
My mind imprisoned
And screaming for the end

The silence is killing me:
The silence is burying me:

Freezing silence
Freezing silence
