

Van Halen, She's The Woman

A little low on cash, but I'm high on luck.
I wanna be your knight in shining pick-up truck
With a Chevy for my summer home.
Let's get the party started
It's looking like the city towed my other apartment.

She got a doorbell sign that said:
"Bring it or don't ring it."

She's the woman /4x

Fate is my pimp,
But she was cool.

I said If you're doin' business with me, honey
What does that make you?

Some Casablanca gin joint?
You're a nervous wreck.

Your I.Q. plummets fourteen points.
Her thunder thong around your neck.

The song ain't dirty
It's really just the way we sing it

She's the woman /4x

She wanted something to regret tomorrow morning.
This suburban garage-a-trois was worth exploring.
Yeah dreams come true but it remains to be seen.
By the time mine usually do it's no longer me!

She got a doorbell sign:
"You better bring it, or don't ring it."
