

Van She, Changes

No..oho

I can't find you jeans ..awhoh
A printed memory ..awhoh
I can show you tears ..awhoh
But I'm already gone ..awhoh

Razors bring you pain ..awhoh
Apple juice won't stain ..awhoh
The olives taste the same (oh, oh, oh)
But I don't know you

And It's Alright
Cause somewhere
I don't care about you
With your books and your stories
Every thing you do

No..oho

In those dreams of you ..awhoh
Hips and brown eyed do ..awhoh
Stardust was our song ..awhoh
But I'm already gone ..awhoh

Razors give me pain ..awhoh
Orange juice won't stain ..awhoh
The olives taste the same (no, no, no)
But I don't know you

And It's Alright
Cause somewhere
I don't care about you
With your books and your stories
Every thing you do

And It's Alright
Cause somewhere
I don't care about you
With your books and your stories
Every thing you...

(wooh, wooh, wooh)
(wooh, wooh, wooh)

And It's Alright
Cause somewhere
I don't care about you
With your books and your stories
Every thing you do

And It's Alright
Cause somewhere
I don't care about you
With your books and your stories
Every thing you do

Every thing you do
Every thing you do
(Every thing)
You do
