

Vandavanda, Come Back And Stay

Why don't you believe me, when I say I'm in love
He's girl crazy! He's always in love
Why don't you believe me, you're all I dream of!
His head's always in clouds up above
Girl, I got your number, and I got your name!
Honey, I'm still the same!
'Cause you say you should be leaving
But I know you'll always come back and stay

Come back and stay

We're sticking together, 'till the end of our days
Like crazy glue, I'm stuck on her face!
We're sticking together, I'll find us a place
How do I love you, I'm counting the ways!
With a dog and a garden, where the children can play
Let the children play!
'Cause you say you should be leaving
But I know you'll always come back and stay

Come back and stay

I will always love you
And it doesn't matter what you say
I'm not made of wood
But I don't care if you tease me
Baby, you're so good
And you know just how to please me

Now we've got some children, and our children have grown
Come back and stay
Now we've got some children, with a place of their own
Come back and stay
They're teasing each other, all night and all day!
And they say they should be leaving
But I know they'll always come back and stay

Come back and stay
