

Vanessa Amorosi, Lifted Up

intro:

i'm only lifted up lifted up lifted up to you

verse 1:

i start my morning
i turn the lights on and slowly wake up and i end my day, i drink from the same cup i get around doin'everything twice but it always feels like, i'm still on the first line but no matter how the week is if you're around i'm fine and the more we are together the more that i find

chorus:

that i am only lifted up lifted up
lifted up to you
said i am only lifted up lifted up lifted up by you lift me with a little love, lift me with a little love

verse 2:

now i have to tell you about the love that you givin'me it makes me happy you make me stronger i believe and when the day is nearly done you don't have to turn around or look for another cos you will only find

repeat chorus

lifted up by you
lift me with a little bit of love
no matter how the week is

repeat chorus (x3)
