

Vanessa Williams, Heartquake!

Heartquake!

You can't be serious
Must be some mistake
Am I delirious
Or do I feel a heartquake
This is critical
How much can I take
It's so electrical
I know that it's a heartquake

Love was a stranger
never at my door
Love came a danger
I never felt before
So i stopped in my tracks
I'm too late, there's no turning back

I got the picture and i got the sound
Everytime your near me
My heart begins to begins to pound
And then I start to shake
Please stop, how much can i take

You can't be serious
Must be some mistake
Am I delirious
Or do I feel a heartquake
This is critical
How much can I take
It's so electrical
I know that it's a heartquake

Got imagination
Let's Put it to the test
Tell me what i'm thinkin
See if you can guess
My heart stops
I can't breathe the roof's too hot

You can't be serious
Must be some mistake
Am I delirious
Or do I feel a heartquake
This is critical
How much can I take
It's so electrical
I know that it's a heartquake

Where am I?
What, him, me?
It's out of control
In my heart
I like it
So deep in my soul

You can't be serious
Must be some mistake
Am I delirious
Or do I feel a heartquake
This is critical
How much can I take
It's so electrical
I know that it's a heartquake
