

Vanessa Williams, Show And Tell

These are the eyes
That never knew how to smile till you came into my life (do-do-do-do-do)
And these are the arms
That long to lock you inside every day and every night (do-do-do-do-do)
Boy, and here is the soul of which you've taken control
Can'tcha see I'm tryin' to show love is right?

Whoa, oh, oh, oh show and tell
Just a game I play
When I wanna say "I love you"
So won't you show me and tell me
That you feel the same way too
Say you do, baby

These are the hands
That can't help reaching for you if you're anywhere in sight
(Anywhere in sight)
And these are the lips
That can't help callin' your name in the middle of the night
(Middle of the night)

Whoa, and here is the man
Who needs to know where you stand
Dontcha know I've done all I can, so decide

Whoa, oh, oh, oh show and tell
Just a game I play
When I wanna say "I love you" (I love you)
So won't you show me and tell me
That you feel the same way too
Say you do, say you do, baby

Ahh, here is the soul
Of which you've taken control
Can't you see I'm tryin' to show love is right?

Ooh, show and tell
Just a game I play
When I wanna say "Oh, I love you"
So won't you show me and tell me
That you feel the same way too
Say you do, baby

Whoa, oh, oh, oh show and tell
Just a game I play
When I wanna say "I love you"
So won't you show me and tell me
That you feel the same way too
Show me baby
I love you
Say you do, say you do, baby, baby
Show and tell me baby
I love you
