

Vanessa Williams, The Easiest Thing

Suddenly there's a meaning
To all my hoping and dreaming
And joy I have never felt before
Suddenly there's a reason
Something I can believe in
And finally I know what my heart is for

This is the easiest thing to do
Yes the easiest thing to do
It's as simple and as natural as
Breathing out and breathing in
Yes the easiest thing is loving you

Suddenly I'm weightless
Feel I could fly or could walk on
With my feet never touching the ground
And I know I'm not crazy
No the searching is over
And baby I've found

This is the easiest thing to do
It's the easiest thing to do
It's as simple and as natural as
Breathing out and breathing in
Yes the easiest thing is loving you

Suddenly the sadness is gone
And I don't have to tell myself
To struggle through
To carry on

This is the easiest thing to do
It's the easiest thing to do
It's as simple and as natural as
Breathing out and breathing in
Yes the easiest thing is loving you
Yes the easiest thing is loving you
Yes the easiest thing is loving you
