

Vanessa Williams, Under The Same Sun

Though we dance to the beat
of a different drum,
we can learn to live together
under the same sun

Sometimes it's hard to understand our brothers and sisters from a distant land try to embrace another view a brand new world is calling out to you

of a different drum,

From town to town from shore to shore there's a bigger world outside your door open your heart to someone new the love you give will come back to you

Though we dance to the beat
of a different drum,
under the same sun

Everybody has a song in their heart though sometimes it's hard to sing so many voices go unheard it's time to start listening

Though we dance to the beat
of a different drum,
under the same sun
