Vanilla, (So Long) Johnnie Walker

So Long, Johnnie Walker No time for Knapps on Proctor So Long, until we meet again

Goodbye Bombay Sapphire English Nut-Brown, Amber Fat-Tire So Long, until we meet again

I'm on the Fourth Step Not your doorstep Anymore

I'm drier than a fire It's as the judge required Now I'm waiting here outside the tavern door

Now I've recovered fully Goodbye to sweet cold Stoli So long until we meet again

I'm just an outcast from The Holy House of Booze

'Cause that communion was my ruin I don't know what I am doing And I haven't got a god damned thing to lose
