

VanVelzen, Someday

Life is seldom fair
But it's far from through
Dust off the fear that's blinding you
Risk a second take
Take a leap of faith
Who knows what you might fall into

Chorus:
Someday it's gonna turn out that way
Can't wait to see what happens
It's gonna set your world on fire
I know it's been a long time coming
But the wait will seem like nothing
When the lightning hits the wire
Someday it's gonna turn out that way

You've been more than brave
You rewrote the page
Of all the rules that tied you down
So brush off the luck
Yeah you won't need much
For you to turn this all around

Chorus

And then you're gonna wake up
In the middle of a dream
Just to find you're not asleep
Somewhere when the sun refuses to shine
You're gonna light your own sky
In the middle of the night

Someday it's gonna turn out that way
Someday it's gonna set your world on fire

Someday it's gonna turn out that way
Can't wait to see what happens
It's gonna set your world on fire
Someday it's gonna turn out that way
For you
