

Various, Buddle Uddle Um Dum

Do you always have to tell him everything on your mind?
You know that too much honesty can be so unkind Everytime you throw him to the floor
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable
You always try to find what's holding him away from you But do you ever see your anger standing there right between you?
And everytime you throw him to the wall
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable
Tell the world that he's breaking your heart Go tell the world
nothing's ever your fault Go tell them all
Every time you throw him to the floor
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable
And every time you push him to the wall why are you surprised to see He's breakable
