

VAST, Channel Zero

Channel two

Nothing's new

What did you expect, another point of view?

Or someone more beautiful than you? Enjoy this emptiness

You give your soul and nothing less You're a naked person with no address So why can't you turn

Because it turns you on

Why can't you look away?

The box is here to stay

Casualties of channel zero

Quiet desperation

Casualties of channel zero

Didn't last

Channel three's

Not for me

Oh my sleeping country tis of thee

You sell things that

That should be free

Technology has a better

But I prevail

Is like what's in common they call hell

So why can't you turn it off?

Because it turns you on

Why can't you look away?

The box is here to stay

Casualties of channel zero

Quiet desperation

Casualties of channel zero

Didn't last (2x)

Yeah, yeah...
