

Vast Vision & Fisher, Everything

Take my hand, no need to speak
Close your eyes and just let me
Take you to the center of your heart, Love
I wont bite unless you ask
Are you ever curious
Do you want to know where love could take us?
Nothing ventured nothing lost
But the chance to find true love
If youd only take a chance on me now
You would know just how it feels
To have something truly real
Filling up the emptiness inside your heart
All my soul
Could I be the one Love
I only want to be your everything
If youd let me will you let me?
I want to be your every fantasy
Could you love me like I love you
With all -All my soul
Could I be the one Love
I only want to be your everything
If youd let me will you let me?
I want to be your every fantasy
Could you love me like I love you
