

Velasquez Regine, Goodbye

Love, look what you've done
You stole my heart
While I was waiting
But now that you're gone
I guess I'll keep holding on to memories
Longing to tell you
All of my dreams
With you beside me
Wanting to hold you
That's all I need But how? It's over?
And now I know what a fool I've been
You told me you loved me
And that love never ends
I can't pretend
It's hard to say goodbye
Time, time be my friend
When will this end
This empty feeling
Now, I'll follow the sun
I guess I'll just carry on
Without you...
Longing to tell you
All of my dreams with you beside me
Wanting to hold you
That's all I need
But how? It's over...
And now I know what a fool I've been
You told me you loved me
And that love never ends
I can't pretend
It's hard to say goodbye...
Goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye...
