

Velvet Acid Christ, Icon

on and on the blood begins to spill i'll forever hate you
on and on my blood begins to chill
on and on my blood begins to chill
waiting, breathing, seething for this time waiting, breathing, killing all my time
fortunes escape me
torture me for my crimes peek through those pretty eyes every time they cut me down to size place your blame
'cause all is lost in this silly game all for you, and nothing for me all for you, and nothing's for free 'cause i'm lost again, broken instead lost in my head, everything you said to me killed me i'm not free, i'm suffering
fortunes escape me
peek through those pretty eyes
'cause all is lost in this silly game all for me, and nothing for you all for me, there's nothing left of you 'cause it's killing time, i've lost my mind i've gone insane, i've got no brain i'm losing touch, 'cause everyone lies to me
'cause nothing's for free
