

Velvet Chain, Strong

I'll be right along
Cause, baby, you're so Strong...

Baby, I see - You're vulnerable to me
That's your power over me
Baby, baby, I know - It's always been so
Physical love is oh so meaningful for you

You write love letters to me - strong
You know how to talk to me - so strong

Baby, I'm yours - you know
Because you're so, so strong you're so, so strong

You would fight for me
You would starve for me
You would suffer, suffer for me
You would die for me
Well, I feel the same way too
You know I feel that way about you

I know you're mad about me
You show me because you're so, so strong
(repeat to fade)
