Velvet Chain, Strong

I'll be right along Cause, baby, you're so Strong...

Baby, I see - You're vulnerable to me That's your power over me Baby, baby, I know - It's always been so Physical love is oh so meaningful for you

You write love letters to me - strong You know how to talk to me - so strong

Baby, I'm yours - you know Because you're so, so strong you're so, so strong

You would fight for me You would starve for me You would suffer, suffer for me You would die for me Well, I feel the same way too You know I feel that way about you

I know you're mad about me You show me because you're so, so strong (repeat to fade)
