Velvet Chain, You Remind Me

You remind me
Of all the good things
You remind me
Of all my favourite memories

?Lately I've been finding that You and me never fight? If I wake in the night There's nothing like the sight of you

You prefered it all before And you still want more You remind me That I'm your family

You supply me With every kind piece of love That you could ever find

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
