

Velvet Empire, 2 A. M.

The moon creeps, into my room.
The problem is, that baby it's not you.
Shadows fall, into my bed,
Wish it was, you instead.

How can I live?
How can I breathe?
When you torture me.
How can you even expect me to sleep?
No, no, no.

(chorus:)
Another night another 2 a.m.,
Baby and I'm lying here alone missing you again, (missing you again)
Another night that I can't pretend,
I'm not helplessly, hopelessly, wondering when
Is this night ever gonna end,
As I'm picturing you and me skin to skin.
Another night another 2 a.m.,

And you are the one that I'm (desperately) wanting.

I'm touching you, the way you like,
I'm feeling you, deep inside.
It's everything, I thought it could be,
The trouble see, it's only me.

How can I live?
How can I breathe?
When you torture me.
How can you even expect me to sleep?
Oh, oh, oh

(chorus)

As night falls, it begins again,
I'm feeling you, underneath my skin.

(chorus (x2))
