Venerea, Mysterious Mike

There's this guy I know He's been to some of our local shows
In bloody clothes
He's a psycho
He's got this whim:
wants us to write a song about him
And simsalabim this is it

(Chorus:)
Mikey
Do it one more time for me Did they know when your head hit the cement, Mikey?
Wowee
Do it one more time for me
Did they know how it set you free?
Will they ever let you be?

There he was a normal guy
just like you and me but when the music started he turned out to be a psycho He lives down the coast and this guy wouldn't boast But he's worth a toast
And a whole lot more

He's a mystery to me
But I wish I could be like Mikey
Mike's a stagediver
I know it's true I've seen him black and blue sitting in an ambulance
He was so proud so proud

(Chorus)
