

Vengaboys, Forever As One

I wish I could turn back time
I wish I'd never have to see that look in your eyes
You really broke this heart of mine
Now it's time to realize it's forever goodbye

So here I am, all alone
Don't understand where did we go wrong
I can't stop crying, can't take the pain
Knowing you won't ever be back again

And it cuts like a knife, I'm going insane
Wishing you would show me love once again
I'm losing my mind but I have to carry on
We were meant to be together, forever as one

So this is where the story ends
Gonna take some time to dry the tears in my eyes
You told me we could still be friends
Now I know your promises were nothing but lies

Still I am all alone
Don't understand where did we go wrong
I can't stop crying, can't take the pain
Knowing you won't ever be back again

And it cuts like a knife, I'm going insane
Wishing you would show me love once again
I'm losing my mind but I have to carry on
We were meant to be together, forever as one

Cuts like a knife I'm going insane
Wishing you would show me love once again
Losing my mind but I have to carry on
We were meant to be together, forever as one

Meant to be together, forever as one
